

For Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just before the election is a misuse of public airways.

This abuse of media consolidation shows why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.